DETAILED ACTION4

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3, 5, 6, and 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Narita et al. (Narita)(JP 08-051786). Narita teaches a plurality of PTFE (dielectric) bumpers extending from the surfaces of the mover and stator.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Narita et al. (Narita)(JP 08-051786). Narita teaches every aspect of the invention except the bumpers extending at least twice the distance from the first surface as the electrodes. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to construct the actuator of Narita with the bumpers 14, 15 being twice the distance from the surface below the electrodes to optimize the performance of the actuator. See In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233, holding that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art.
